

2015 Annual Report

Motivated by Christian faith, COBYS Family Services educates, supports, and empowers children and adults to reach their full potential. We carry out this mission through adoption and foster care services, counseling, family life education, and more. COBYS employs 73 staff (30 full-time), working from three locations. During its 35th anniversary year COBYS saw significant growth in several ministries and set a record for private donations. This report covers the July 1, 2014-June 30, 2015 fiscal year.

care, 30 were reunited with their birth parents or relatives, 14 were adopted by their COBYS foster family, and the rest went to other placements.

COBYS approved 18 new foster/adoptive resource families, bringing the total

Adoption. An affiliate of the Statewide Adoption & Permanency Network (SWAN), the COBYS adoption program helps prepare children and families for adoption, finalizes adoptions, and provides post-adoption support. Adoption staff finalized 16 adoptions and provided additional services to 206 foster children and 23 foster/adoptive resource families. Ten families received support services after their adoption. The number of adoptions finalized and families served declined sharply from the previous year in part due to a loss of momentum associated with a leadership transition.

In addition to these SWAN-related services, COBYS provided free birth parent counseling to two families facing unplanned pregnancies and worked with five families who were seeking to adopt an infant. COBYS birth parent counselors are available as a resource to pastors and others who assist families facing unplanned pregnancies.

Counseling. COBYS therapists provided 3,169 hours of therapy during the year, an increase of 483 hours (18 percent) from the previous year. This was the seventh consecutive year of growth; during the past five years client hours have more than doubled. Nineteen percent (53) of clients received services at a discounted rate, with private donations of $33,390 supplementing the sliding scale fees that these clients were able to pay.

COBYS offers individual, family, and marital counseling to both children and adults. Therapists address relational issues with couples and families; depression, anxiety, and other mood disorders; ADHD; and more. Four part-time therapists provide services at the Oregon Counseling Center, north of Lancaster; and at the Palmyra Area Counseling Center, hosted by First United Methodist Church. Additional hires are expected in the coming year.

Foster Care. The foster care program provides temporary care for abused and neglected children. Foster care staff facilitated 20,367 days of care for 123 foster children, up from 19,146 days of care for 96 foster children the previous year. All children were referred by Lancaster County and Berks County Children and Youth Agencies.

Intentional efforts are made to place brothers and sisters in the same home. COBYS families cared for a total of 32 sibling groups, including five groups of three and four groups of four. COBYS families also cared for 10 children with special medical needs, including premature birth, brain trauma, prenatal drug addiction, and congenital defects.

Of the 66 children discharged from number of families at year-end to 70. Last spring, COBYS added a new training format for potential resource families. Families now can choose to receive their 27 hours of training through three day-long classes or the traditional nine-week evening pre-service training. COBYS offers monthly informational sessions at the COBYS main office and at the Wyomissing Church of the Brethren for families interested in exploring foster care or adoption.

Family Life Education. The Family Life Education (FLE) program received two grants totaling $279,755 from the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency (PCCD)—one to spearhead a Communities That Care Coalition in Southern Lancaster County to address needs of teens and families and the other to provide parenting education to the Spanish-speaking population of Lancaster County. In addition, COBYS educators tapped into a new income stream of $130,000 over three years from the United Way of Lancaster County as a partner in three “collaboratives” with other agencies. These funds will help COBYS reach teen parents, provide training for operators of in home day care centers, and serve children with challenging behaviors.

During the past fiscal year COBYS educators led 58 courses and 14 workshops, providing 935 classroom hours and serving 751 adults, youth, and children. Classroom hours grew by 26 percent from the previous year, while the total number of people served was down 17 percent.

Programs were offered at 18 different sites including the COBYS Family Life Center in Lancaster, community locations, schools, and churches.

Permanency Unit. Permanency Unit staff served 93 children from 60 families, both figures down slightly from the previous year. Fifteen children from 10 families returned home to a parent and another was released to a relative. Parental rights were terminated for 12 children from eight families so that they can be adopted, with two others achieving permanency through placement with a Subsidized Permanent Legal Custodian. Three youth signed out of care after turning 18.

Based in Lancaster and operated in partnership with the Lancaster County Children & Youth Social Service Agency, the Permanency Unit seeks to find safe, permanent homes for foster children. Staff monitor the well-being of foster children, support foster parents, and assist birth parents to overcome the issues that led to their children’s placement in care.

Community Connections.

Through Community Connections, COBYS provides case management services to help local churches link families with needs to services in the community. As their support network widens, families’ financial dependence on the church lessens. COBYS partnered with three churches to help them meet the needs of seven families.

Generous Giving

COBYS Family Services’ annual budget of $3 million is supported by public funding, grants, fees for services, and private donations. This report focuses on private giving, which accounts for nearly one-fifth of COBYS’ income.

Thanks in part to two record fundraisers, two large bequests, and extra income generated by the Work for the Well-Being of the City capital campaign, total private giving of $925,364 shattered the previous income record, set last year. Even without the record year in bequests, for the fourth consecutive year giving to the general fund grew—a healthy increase of 5.2 percent over last year.
