

2016

Annual Report

COBYS Family Services experienced unprecedented growth in staff, budget, and services during the past year.

Motivated by Christian faith, COBYS educates, supports, and empowers children and adults to reach their full potential. We carry out this mission through adoption and foster care services, counseling, family life education, and more. At year's end, COBYS employed 89 staff, including 36 full-time employees (up from 73 and 30 last year), working from three locations. During the past year (July 1, 2015-June 30, 2016), COBYS served children and families in these ways:

Adoption. An affiliate of the Statewide Adoption & Permanency Network (SWAN), the COBYS adoption program provides a variety of adoption-related services. They include child specific recruitment to help locate adoptive homes for harder to place children, child preparation to ready children for transitions, child and family profiles to facilitate matching, finalizations, and post adoption support. The program experienced across-the-board growth, more than doubling the number of services in key categories (see table). Jen McDowell rejoined staff as Adoption Supervisor.

Counseling. COBYS therapists provided 3,039 hours of therapy to children and adults during the year, a slight decrease from the previous year.

Services include individual, family, and marital counseling. Therapists address relational issues with couples and families; depression, anxiety, and other mood disorders; ADHD; and more. Seven part-time therapists provide services at the Oregon Counseling Center, north of Lancaster; and at the Palmyra Area Counseling Center, hosted by First United Methodist Church. Private donations cover the cost of therapy provided at a reduced rate to some uninsured clients.

The program received a two-year $125,936 grant from Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency to enable seven COBYS therapists to obtain certification in Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, an evidence-based treatment to help children and teens overcome trauma. COBYS is one of the first in the area to offer this type of treatment.

Family Life Education. Fueled by new grants and additional support from public sources, the Family Life Education program saw across-the-board growth in courses and workshops, classroom hours, and clients served.

Educators led 107 courses and 31 workshops, providing 1,545 classroom hours of instruction to 1,313 adults, youth, and children. The previous year's totals were 58 courses, 14 workshops, 935 hours, and 751 clients.

Programs were offered at 36 sites including the COBYS Family Life Center in Lancaster, community locations, schools, and churches. All told, the number of programs and locations doubled, and the number of people served grew by 75 percent.

Contributing to an exceptional year of service was an unexpected $133,000 grant from the Lancaster County Drug and Alcohol Commission to offer additional programs.

Foster Care. The foster care program provides temporary care for abused and neglected children. Foster care staff facilitated 26,947 days of care for 141 foster children, up from 20,367 days of care for 123 foster children the previous year. COBYS served more children last year than any time in the past 17 years, and only once in COBYS' 36-year history were more children cared for. Days of care increased by nearly a third.

Intentional efforts are made to place brothers and sisters together in the same home. COBYS families cared for a total of 35 sibling groups. COBYS families also cared for 15 children with special medical needs. Of the 65 children discharged from care, 31 were reunited with their birth parents or relatives, 16 were adopted by their foster family, and the rest went to other placements.

Through a partnership with Lancaster County, for the first time COBYS provided short-term emergency foster care for 15 children who needed a foster home during the night or weekend. These additional children accounted for most of the increase in the number of children served.

COBYS approved 24 new foster/adoptive resource families, bringing the total number at year's end to 86, the largest number in memory.

Permanency Unit. Expansion was the theme at the Permanency Unit. At the invitation of the Lancaster County

Mark Myers

Children and Youth Agency, which funds this program, and with help from volunteers, building renovations were completed to make room for a doubling of staff from eight to sixteen. The program is poised to significantly increase the number of families served during the current year. Krista Rankin was promoted to a Supervisor position, joining Supervisor Nicole Lauzus.

Based in Lancaster, this program seeks to find safe, permanent homes for foster children. Staff monitor the well-being of foster children, support foster parents, and assist birth parents to overcome the issues that led to their children's placement in care.

Staff served 113 children from 77 families, up from 93 and 60 last year. Fourteen children from 13 families returned home to a parent or guardian. The Court terminated parental rights for 20 children from 11 families, freeing the children for adoption. Three others achieved permanency through placement with a Subsidized Permanent Legal Custodian. Two youth signed out of Agency custody after turning 18.

Community Connections.

Through Community Connections, COBYS partners with churches, schools, and community organizations to provide case advocacy services to individuals and families with financial, mental health, relational, and other needs. The Case Advocate helps the client and partner organization develop goals that empower the client to increase independence within six months. Last year COBYS partnered with six churches to serve seven families.

Financial Support

The COBYS budget eclipsed $3 million for the first time in 2015/2016, and for the current year is $4 million. Private giving (the focus of this report) accounted for nearly one-fifth of COBYS' income. While overall private income declined from the previous year—due to a decrease from last year's record bequest amount and expected winding down of the Work for the Well-Being of the City capital campaign—giving to the general fund grew by 13 percent, the fifth consecutive year of growth. Because of strong private giving COBYS was able to weather the state budget impasse that caused extreme hardship for other agencies and at one point resulted in delay of more than $1 million in payments to COBYS.

Pledges to the Work for the Well-Being campaign to fund family life education expansion reached the $300,000 goal during the year. To date $298,487 of $302,760 pledged has been received.

We are grateful for the strong financial support that enables us to continue to serve children and families in Christ's name!

Additional financial information is available upon request.
